

1872, ch. 442.

320. Nothing in the code of public general laws relating to wild fowl, shall be construed to prohibit any citizen of Dorchester county, or any person to whom any citizen of said county may extend the privilege, from shooting at or shooting from any sink-boats, any water fowl in or over the waters of Choptank river, or its tributaries, within the limits of said county, at any time from day-break until dark, on any Tuesday, Thursday or Saturday.