

same shall be kept by the county commissioners subject to the order of the person entitled thereto; and in case the said collector shall fail, neglect or refuse to pay over such unpaid appropriations, on demand made by the county commissioners, then it shall be the duty of the county commissioners to institute suit on the bond of such collector, and to assign generally the breach that said collector has failed or refused to pay over to the county commissioners the balance in his hands as such collector under this section.

CRIER.

1888, ch. 265.

96. The crier of the circuit court for Frederick county shall be entitled to and receive, as a salary, four hundred and eighty dollars per annum, in sums of forty dollars per month, which shall be in lieu of all allowances heretofore authorized by law; and the county commissioners are authorized and directed to levy annually for the use of the crier of said court, on the assessable property of said county, such sums of money as they shall deem sufficient to pay the above salary of the said crier of said court, and upon presentation to them of the certificate of the clerk of said court, certifying the attendance of said crier, he shall be entitled to receive his salary monthly in cash, and the said county commissioners are directed, upon presentation thereof, to pay the same.

Ibid.

97. In case the person appointed as crier of said circuit court should be designated as librarian of the public law library of said court, he shall receive, as librarian, the sum of ten dollars per month, to be paid in like manner as provided in the preceding section.

CROWS.

1864, ch. 250. 1876, ch. 12. 1878, ch. 301. 1880, ch. 130. 1884, ch. 25.

98. Article 28 of the code of public general laws, entitled "Crows," shall not relate or apply to Charles, Calvert, Carroll, Caroline, Frederick, Garrett, Harford, Montgomery, Prince George's, Queen Anne's, Talbot, Allegany, Baltimore and Dorchester counties.