

1886, ch. 420.

306. For every violation of the provisions of the preceding section, the person, on conviction of the same, shall, for every offence, pay not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars; and upon failure to pay the same shall be committed to the county jail until paid, or discharged by due process of law; one-half of such penalty shall go to the informer and the other half shall be applied as provided by law.

1884, ch. 163.

307. It shall not be lawful for any person to sell, barter or otherwise dispose of, for gain, any spirituous or fermented liquors, beer, ale or intoxicating drinks of any kind, in quantities less than one gallon, within one and one-half miles of the principal front gate of Mount Saint Mary's college.

Ibid.

308. Any person violating the provisions of the preceding section shall be liable to indictment by the grand jury, and shall, upon conviction, be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars for each and every offence; one-half of said fine shall be paid to the informer and the other half to the county commissioners of said county, for the use of the public schools.

1864, ch. 184.

309. The clerk of the circuit court shall not grant a license to any person to sell spirituous or fermented liquors of any kind, at any time or place within three miles of either of the churches in the village of Myersville; and any person selling any kind of intoxicating drinks, whether of original manufacture or of a mixed character, within the above described limits, shall, on conviction, be subject to all the fines and penalties prescribed by article 56 of the code of public general laws, title "Licenses," for selling spirituous or fermented liquors without license.

1866, ch. 104.

310. The clerk of the circuit court shall not grant a license to any person to sell spirituous or fermented liquors of any kind at any place within three miles of either of the churches in the
