

which shall be opened to the inspection of all persons interested therein, and shall perform such other duties as the commissioners may assign him.

1878, ch 397. 1888, ch. 541.

85. The commissioners shall also biennially appoint a chief bailiff, and such number of under-bailiffs as they may deem necessary.

1878, ch. 397.

86. They shall allow their clerk, chief bailiff and under-bailiff such compensation as they shall think proper.

Ibid.

87. They and all other officers of the corporation shall, before entering upon the duties of their office, make oath that they will diligently and faithfully, to the best of their skill and judgment, perform the duties of their office, and shall file a certificate thereof of the officer before whom the same was made, among the records of the corporation.

Ibid.

88. The clerk and chief bailiff shall give bond to the commissioners in such penalty and with such sureties as they may require, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of their respective offices.

Ibid.

89. The commissioners shall receive all returns of elections and determine all questions arising thereon, but any person considering himself aggrieved by such decision may appeal therefrom to the circuit court for Montgomery county, which court shall hear and determine such appeal, and decide who shall pay the costs thereof.

Ibid.

90. They may pass such ordinances, not inconsistent with law, as they may deem beneficial to the town; may open and close streets, lanes and alleys; grade and pave the same; remove nuisances and obstructions therefrom; restrain all disorders and disturbances; prevent all congregations of disorderly persons in public places; apprehend and fine all tramps and vagabonds;
