

sioners, of not more than two and one-half ( $2\frac{1}{2}$ ) per centum on the amount of taxes levied for county purposes and actually collected by him; and also to the commission allowed by existing laws to the collectors of State taxes; and the said commissions shall be in full for the services rendered by such treasurer in the discharge of the duties of his office, and no extra compensation shall be allowed him or claimed by him, except such costs and fees hereinbefore specified, as may accrue in the enforcement of the payment of taxes, and for assessing new property; provided, that the said commissioners may, in their discretion, and if they shall deem it necessary to the proper discharge of the duties of his office, allow him for the salary of a clerk or deputy a sum of money not to exceed six hundred dollars per annum; and the said commissioners are authorized and directed, in their several annual levies, to levy an amount sufficient to pay the commissions and salaries so allowed. The said commissions and salary so allowed shall not be retained by the treasurer out of collections made, but shall be paid him by check as other claims are paid, and from time to time as such commissions and salary shall be earned, and in no other manner; commissions on uncollected taxes turned over to his successor in office shall not be allowed him, but shall be allowed to the person who collects the same.

1884, ch. 462

236. The treasurer shall not be authorized to pay any officer or other person, being a debtor of the county commissioners aforesaid, or owing taxes, any salary or other claim against the county until he shall first have deducted the account due by such officer or other person to said commissioners, or for taxes; on all taxes in arrear in the hands of the treasurer for collection, he shall be charged interest from the time when the same became due and payable until collected or accounted for, respectively; provided, that said commissioners may make such exception, in cases where he is prevented from receiving interest by reason of the pendency of judicial proceedings or otherwise, as may be right and equitable.

TRESPASSING.

1886, ch. 348.

237. Any person who shall enter upon the land or premises of any other person in Anne Arundel county, to the injury of