

1876, ch. 78.

248. The clerk of the circuit court for Anne Arundel county, shall, upon application of any resident of the said county, being the owner of any sink-box, to be used and employed in shooting wild fowl therefrom, grant a license, under the seal of his court, to such applicant to gun after and shoot at wild water fowl from such sink-box, within the waters of Anne Arundel county and of Chesapeake bay, lying and being within the limits of said county, except in those portions excepted by section 252, from the first day of October in each and every year, until the first day of May next thereafter.

Ibid.

249. The applicant, before obtaining such license, shall pay to the said clerk for each sink-box, the sum of thirty dollars for each and every gunning season, as fixed by the preceding section; and the said clerk, for issuing the same, shall be entitled to charge and receive seventy-five cents; and he shall keep a register of the names and residences of the persons to whom he shall issue such licenses, and the name and number of each sink-box for the use of which he may issue a license.

Ibid.

250. Each and every such license issued, shall state the name of the person to whom the same may be granted, the name and number of the sink-box licensed, and the periods at which said license shall begin and expire; and every person to whom such license may be granted, shall be required to paint the name and number of his sink-box on some prominent part thereof, in large legible letters or numbers to correspond with the name and number in such license.

Ibid.

251. Any person who shall use or employ any sink-box without such license having been first obtained therefor, shall on conviction thereof before any justice of the peace of said county be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars for each and every violation thereof, one-half of which said fine shall be paid to the informer and the other half to the school
