

between the first day of May and the first day of June; and may levy on the property assessed, annually, such sum as may be necessary for the improvement of the town, and to carry out the purposes of this sub-title of this article, not to exceed in any one year the sum of three hundred and fifty dollars; and the commissioners may purchase and hold four acres of land for the use and benefit of said town, three acres thereof to be eligibly located, and to be enclosed and kept as a cemetery, to be divided and apportioned into burial lots, to be sold and disposed of by said commissioners at such prices as they may deem reasonable, the money arising therefrom to be appropriated to the enclosing, keeping and adornment of said cemetery.

1870, ch. 313.

251. The bailiff and clerk shall each attend the meeting of said commissioners, and shall each take and subscribe an oath, to be administered by some one of the commissioners, for the due and proper discharge of the duties of their respective offices; and the commissioners may take bond from the bailiff for the faithful performance of the duties of his office; the bailiff shall arrest and carry before some justice of the peace, resident in said town, to be dealt with as hereinbefore provided, any person found breaking the peace or disturbing the quiet and order of said town, or violating any of the ordinances made for securing the safety of the property or the lives of the inhabitants of said town; and he shall have power to summon any of the inhabitants of said town to assist him when he deems it necessary.

SURVEYOR.

P. L. L., (1860.) art. 17, sec. 154.

252. All surveys of land in said county, done by authority of law, may be performed by the surveyor of the county and his deputies, except where he has a personal interest in the survey.

Ibid. sec. 155.

253. All warrants, writs and orders issued from the courts of said county, under which lands are to be surveyed in said county, may be directed to and executed by the county surveyor.