

1884, ch. 261.

111. In case any of said commissioners shall die, resign, remove from said town, or be otherwise disqualified during the year for which they were elected, the remaining commissioners shall fill the vacancy so caused, by electing a citizen of said town, qualified as aforementioned, for the balance of said unexpired term.

Ibid.

112. The said commissioners shall meet from time to time, as occasion may require, not less than once in every two months, and may appoint a clerk, assign his duties, and fix his compensation as they may think proper.

Ibid.

113. They may make all such by-laws and ordinances, not contrary to law, as they may deem expedient for the comfort, health, convenience and prosperity of said town and its inhabitants; for the prevention and removal of nuisances, preservation of health, and suppression of vice and immorality in said town.

Ibid.

114. All ordinances passed by said commissioners shall be entered in a book kept for that purpose by the clerk, which shall be open at all times to the inspection of any person interested; and copies of said ordinances shall be posted up in the most public places in said town, that the same may be generally known.

Ibid.

115. Said commissioners shall have power to levy annually upon all the property in said town, subject to State and county taxation, a tax not to exceed twenty cents on the one hundred dollars, to defray the expenses of said corporation; and the collector appointed by them to collect and pay the same over to them, shall have the same power of distraint as a collector of county taxes; and they shall fix the term of office, responsibility and compensation of said collector; and may appoint two citizens of said town to assess all property in said town, who, before beginning their work, shall be duly sworn to make such assessment fairly and impartially.
