

1884, ch. 261

116. They may appoint annually a bailiff for said town, who shall perform such duties as may be required of him by them, and preserve peace and good order in said town; and for that purpose he shall have all the powers of a constable.

Ibid.

117. They may levy a tax on all dogs kept in said town, and may collect the same as other taxes, or in default of payment may cause said dogs to be killed.

Ibid.

118. All fines and forfeitures under the ordinances of the said corporation, shall be recoverable before the president of the board of commissioners, or any justice of the peace in and for said county, as small debts are recoverable.

JURORS.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 22, sec. 53.

119. The county commissioners shall annually levy such sum of money as they may deem sufficient to pay the expenses which may annually be incurred by the attendance of jurymen at the circuit court for said county.

Ibid. sec 54.

120. The collector of taxes for said county shall pay each jurymen, immediately after the termination of each term, such sum of money as he may be entitled to receive for his attendance; and a certificate, signed by the clerk of the circuit court, stating the number of days he may have attended, and the sum due him, shall be sufficient authority to the collector to pay the amount specified in said certificate.
