

89. No drafts on treasurer, unless sufficient money in the treasury to pay them.
90. All monies received to be paid to treasurer; no one but treasurer to pay drafts or obligations of the city.
91. City engineer to have supervision over all grading of streets.
92. Failure of mayor or members of city council to retain all qualifications during their entire term; new election.
93. Obstruction of aisles in halls, schools, churches or places of amusement.
94. Doors to be kept open unless opening outward.
95. Penalty.
96. Special charge to grand jury, and duty of police in reference to sections 93, 94 and 95.

Deer.

97. When lawful to kill
98. Penalty.
99. Evidence of such unlawful killing.

Dogs.

100. When not to be taxed.

Election Districts.

101. Number and boundaries of.
102. County commissioners to have power to change lines between districts.
103. Sub-division of districts.
104. Compensation to clerks and judges of election

Elections—Primary.

105. How to be presided over and conducted.
106. Candidates to name watchers.
107. Election offences, enumeration of.
108. Oath of judges, challenging votes, examination of persons offering to vote.

109. Offences by judges, tellers or canvassers, enumeration of.
110. Qualifications of voters at.
111. Bribes taken by delegates.
112. Bribing of delegates.
113. Penalties.

Estrays.

114. Warrant of appraisement; certificate of valuation.
115. Advertisement of the stray.
116. Owner claiming within one year, entitled to the animal or its value, upon paying costs.
117. If unclaimed within a year.
118. What are estrays.

Fences.

119. Cattle trespassing upon unenclosed land, not to be impounded.
120. Damages for injury to cattle; appraisement
121. Refusal of either of the parties to appoint an appraiser.

Fish.

122. Putting lime or poison into, or fishing with seine or net in any stream west of Savage Mountain, penalty.

Flintstone.

123. Unlawful to sell liquors in.
124. Except upon prescription of regular practising physician.

Flour.

125. Inspector; his duties, oath and bond.
126. Grade or brand of flour inspected to be marked on the barrel.
127. To weigh, if desired by vendor or purchaser; forfeiture for light weight.
128. Inspector not to purchase any flour except for his own family use, penalty.
129. Insufficient barrel.
130. Compensation to inspector.