

such spirituous liquors, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred dollars for each and every offence; to be recovered by indictment, one-half to the informer and the other half to the use of said city.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 4, sec. 596.

562. If any assistant warden, or other person having charge of said prison or prison lot, shall introduce any such spirituous liquors, or suffer them to be introduced, knowing it to be done contrary to law; or shall admit any person (with the exception of the attorney of a person confined in said prison) to enter said jail or lot without license as aforesaid, each and every of them so offending shall be suspended from his office, and be incapable of holding any office or charge within said prison or lot for the space of one year thereafter.

Ibid. sec. 594.

563. No person, except the attorney of a prisoner, shall be permitted to visit a prisoner within said jail or lot, unless by special license from the warden, or some judge or justice, or other person legally authorized to give the same.

Ibid. sec. 597.

564. All persons convicted of offences in the criminal court of Baltimore, and who are sentenced to imprisonment in Baltimore city jail, shall be put to and required to labor during such confinement.

Ibid. sec. 598.

565. All persons hereafter sentenced to be imprisoned in said jail for offences by the said court, shall be kept on prison fare, and not be allowed any other food or drink, unless by the written direction of the physician of the jail.

Ibid. sec. 599.

566. No admission of visitors shall be allowed to condemned prisoners during their confinement, except the official visitors of the jail, ministers of the gospel, physicians and legal counsel.
