

Arundel and Prince George's counties, in the following proportion, that is to say: Calvert shall bear one-fifth of the cost, Anne Arundel, two fifths, and Prince George's two-fifths.

CIRCUIT COURT.

1868, ch. 439.

41. There shall be two regular terms of the circuit courts for the several counties of Calvert, St. Mary's, Prince George's and Charles, composing the seventh judicial circuit of this State, to which jurors shall be summoned, and said terms shall be held at the following times: for Calvert county, at Prince Frederick, on the first Monday of May and the Wednesday next after the first Monday of November in each year; for St. Mary's county, at Leonardtown, on the third Monday of March and September in each year; for Prince George's county, at Upper Marlboro', on the first Monday of April and October in each year, and for Charles county, at Port Tobacco, on the third Monday of May and November in each year.

Ibid.

42. There shall be two other and intermediate terms of each of said courts, to which jurors shall not be summoned, to be held at the several places mentioned, and at the following times: for Calvert county, on the first Monday of July and February; for St. Mary's county, on the first Monday of June and December; for Prince George's county, on the third Monday of January and June, and for Charles county, on the third Monday of February and July in each year.

CLERK.

1882, ch. 443.

43. All books belonging to the library of the circuit court for Calvert county shall be securely kept by the clerk of the said court in proper cases to be provided for the purpose in the court room, and not to be allowed to be taken out of the said court room, except by the direction of one of the judges of the said court when required by him for use in chambers; and for any neglect of duty in the premises, the bond of the said clerk shall be responsible.
