

170. Commissioners to have power to receive deeds of conveyance, and contract to carry out the design.
171. Their powers after the erection of the asylum.
172. Who are to be removed to it upon its erection, or committed to it thereafter.
173. Levy to meet expenses over and above its revenue.
174. Levy to pay the interest and principal of bonds issued for such asylum.
- Intoxicating Liquors.
175. Purchase of by or for a minor; penalty.
- Jurors.
176. Levy to pay, clerk of circuit court to give bond for its disbursement.
177. Surplus remaining in clerk's hands.
178. Clerk's compensation for said services.
- Justices of the Peace and Constables.
179. Number in each election district
180. Residents of the county not to be sued out of the election district where they reside, or where the cause of action originated
181. Residents in districts four, five, six and fourteen may be sued in either of said districts, removal.
182. Special jurisdiction and powers of justices, praying jury trial.
183. Justice's fees, constable's fees.
184. Costs; by whom paid; fines to be paid over without deduction to county commissioners.
- Manufacturers and Miners.
185. Payment of employees of manufacturing, mining or railroad corporation to be in legal tender
186. Section 185 not to prevent deductions for rent due, or advances of supplies or money.
187. Nor to apply to payment in bank notes current at par.
188. Penalty for violating section 185.
189. Petition for receiver.
190. Answer, trial, no demurrer or plea in abatement.
191. Receiver's bond.
192. Receiver's duties, no preference or priority, no lien, except mechanics' lien, shall operate to prejudice of employees or furnishers of raw material.
193. Property sufficient to pay employees or furnishers of raw material to be exempt from execution.
194. Hours of labor ten per day.
195. Penalty for violation of section 194.
- Mine Inspector.
196. Appointment and term of.
197. Persons eligible to the office.
198. Oath; compensation.
199. Duties of.
200. Restrictions upon him in the matter of other employment; reports to governor
201. Maps of workings of each mine to be kept in its office.
202. Ventilation for mines
203. Inside overseer, his duties.
204. Props and timber.
205. Mines in which foul air or gases are known to exist, ventilation of
206. Mine inspector to act as inspector of weights, weighmasters, their oath and duties.
207. Accurate scales to be provided; coal to be weighed before removal from the mine cars.
208. Penalty for violation of sections 201 to 207, and section 209.
209. Contracts to dig by measurement.
- Register of Wills.
210. To keep index to all papers and proceedings.