

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 7, sec. 143.

121. The said corporation shall not issue any note, certificate, token or other evidence of debt, to be used as currency.

Ibid. sec. 144.

122. Any person residing in said town may impound any swine belonging to any person residing therein, that may be found going at large in the town; and any person so doing shall immediately set up notice thereof, in the most public places in the town, for at least three days, inserting therein the marks and description of said swine; and if the same are not reclaimed within three days after seizure and impounding, and the expense of impounding and keeping, to be allowed by a justice of the peace, together with seventy-five cents for each swine, paid, the said swine shall be sold at public sale by the person impounding the same, after three days' notice, in writing, set up as aforesaid, and the proceeds of such sale applied to the expense of keeping and impounding such swine, and the balance shall be paid to the treasurer, for the use of the corporation.

1867, ch. 420.

123. The county commissioners shall not be exempt from keeping the county roads within said corporation in good repair, the same as though there was no corporation, unless the citizens within the corporation be exempt from county taxes; if not so exempt, the corporate authorities shall not be bound to keep the county roads in repair within the limits of the corporation.

Ibid.

124. Neglect or nonuser shall not work a forfeiture of this charter.
