Sanborn v. Mullen, 77 Md. 481.

1894, ch. 104.

38. Every clerk, before issuing an attachment under the preceding section, shall take from the plaintiff or some person on his behalf, bond to the State of Maryland, with security to be approved by said clerk, in double the sum alleged to be due by the defendant or defendants, conditioned for satisfying all costs which may be awarded to such defendant or defendants or to any other persons interested in the proceedings, and all damages which the defendant or defendants, or any other persons interested in the proceedings, shall suffer because of the wrongful suing out of said attachment, which bond shall be filed in the office of the clerk issuing such attachment: the condition of said bond shall be substantially in the following form. The condition of this obligation is such, that whereas the above bounden ——— hath on the day of the date hereof, ordered an attachment out of (naming the court from which said attachment shall issue) at the suit of ——— vs. ———, for the sum of ———, and the same being about to be sued out of said court, returnable on the ——— day of ——— next; now if the said ——— shall prosecute his suit with effect, or in the case of failure thereof shall well and truly pay and satisfy the said ——— and any other person interested in the proceedings, all such costs of said suit, and all such damages as he or they shall or may suffer or incur by reason of the wrongful suing out of such attachment, then the above obligation to be void, otherwise to remain in full force and effect. Every attachment hereafter issued without a bond and affidavit
