

justice of the peace or other officer authorized to administer an oath, setting forth the names of the claimant and debtor; and, if the debt was not contracted by the owner, but by his agent, the name of such agent, the name or other certain description of the boat or vessel, and the place where built, repaired, equipped or refitted, and the particulars or items of the claim or debt; and which account or statement shall be re-delivered by such clerk to the party filing the same, after it has been recorded as provided in section 46.

ARTICLE LXV.

MILITIA.

II. Maryland National Guard.

1. ORGANIZATION.

8. What shall constitute the Maryland National Guard.
9. Infantry organization.
12. How officers of the line of the brigade shall be elected.
13. How election of the brigadier general and other field officers shall be made.
14. Names to be forwarded to commander-in-chief, board of examiners, approval by the Governor.
- 14A Applicants for enlistment.
15. Officers and men to take oath; form of oath.
16. Terms of commissions and enlistment.

2. DISCIPLINE.

20. Inspection of brigades.
21. Courts-martial
22. Commander-in-chief to make rules and regulations.
24. By-laws of regiment and separate organization.

25. Liability of force to be called into service—to be subject to military rules and regulations.

3. SERVICE AND PAY.

- 31 Encampments first brigade; naval brigade.
32. Pay of commissioned and non-commissioned officers and men—of officers and seamen of naval brigade.
34. How to be called out in case of riots, disorder or opposition to the laws

4. MAINTENANCE AND EQUIPMENT.

- 36 How State appropriation is to be distributed.

5. MARYLAND NATIONAL GUARD RETIRED.

- 50 Retired list, admission to.

6 ROSTER.

51. Roster to be kept by adjutant-general

7. REWARDS.

52. Reward for continuous service.
- 53 Unlawful to dispose of service medals; penalty