

the first day of September, or any squirrel between the first day of December and the first day of September, under a penalty of not less than one ($1) dollar nor more than two ($2) dollars for each of the aforesaid birds or game animals so had in possession, exposed for sale, bought or sold.

1898, ch. 206, sec. 15 F.

20. No person shall have in possession, expose for sale, sell or buy any of the aforesaid birds or game animals, alive or dead in said city of Baltimore, or in any of the aforesaid respective counties during the aforesaid respective closed seasons or dates between which, in said city or counties, it is made unlawful, by the preceding sections of this sub-title, to shoot or have the same in possession, whether such birds or game animals so had in possession, exposed for sale, sold or bought, shall have been shot, or in any manner caught or killed in that county, or in any other county of this State, or in any other State, territory or country, under a penalty for the having in possession, exposing for sale, selling or buying of each such bird or game animal, similar in amount, respectively, to that hereinbefore made and provided for the illegal shooting or having in possession of the same; but nothing in this section or the preceding sections contained shall be so construed as to prevent any person or corporation from having in his or its possession, at any time, any live birds or game animals, for the purpose of stocking lands in this State.

Dickhaut v. State, 85 Md. 459.

Ibid. sec. 15 H.

21. No person shall in this State, at any time shoot or in any manner catch or kill, expose for sale, sell or buy, or have in possession, alive or dead, any turkéy buzzard, wren, sparrow, bluebird, humming-bird, blue jay, migratory or other thrush, wood-robin, red-breasted robin, martin, mocking-bird, catbird, swallow, oriole, redbird, lark, indigo-bird, joe wink, pewitt, sapsucker, whippoorwill, goldfinch, yellow-breasted chat, cedar bird, herring gull or mackerel gull, or gull of any description, under a penalty of not less than one ($1) dollar nor more than five ($5) dollars for each such bird so shot, caught, killed, exposed for sale, sold, bought or had in possession; and no person shall under like penalty, have in his or her possession, offer for sale or wear the skins, plumage, wings or feathers of any of the birds, the catching or killing of which is prohibited by this section; provided however,
