1894, ch. 248, sec. 4.

206. The entire expense of his office shall not exceed fifty-five hundred dollars ($5,500) a year, which shall be paid out of moneys paid into the State treasury by or for the insurance companies doing business in this State; and immediately upon the qualification of the fire marshal, as provided in section 203, the treasurer shall, upon the warrant of the comptroller, pay to the said fire marshal the sum of twenty-seven hundred and fifty dollars ($2,750), and a like sum at the expiration of each succeeding period of six months, and out of the moneys thus received by him, he shall pay himself a salary of twenty-five hundred dollars ($2,500) per annum, payable in monthly instalments; and he shall provide himself a clerk at a salary not exceeding twelve hundred dollars ($1,200) a year, also payable monthly; he shall also be allowed out of said moneys a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) a year for office rent, and may employ from time to time such other clerical and other assistants, and provide himself with such means of conveyance as in his judgment the necessities of the office may require; and when in the proper discharge of his duties he is compelled to go outside the limits of the city of Baltimore, he shall be allowed his traveling, hotel and other necessary expenses; he shall also provide himself with such office fixtures and appliances as the needs of his office may require; and at the end of each year, accounting from the date of his qualification as fire marshal, he shall make to the comptroller, under oath, a full report of the receipts and disbursements received and made by him during the preceding year, and shall at the same time pay into the State treasury any balance of said sum of fifty-five hundred dollars ($5,500) that may then remain unexpended; and he shall keep or cause to be kept full and accurate accounts of the finances of his office, and shall also keep or cause to be kept an accurate record of his official acts.

Ibid. sec. 5.

207. The said fire marshal shall have an office in the city of Baltimore, but in making examinations as to fires occurring outside of the city of Baltimore, he shall, when in his judg-
