

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That upon the completion of the said bridge, the said county commissioners shall keep the same as a toll-bridge, with proper gates and bars to secure the same; and it shall be lawful for them to ask, demand and receive for the purpose of keeping said bridge in good repair and condition, the following tolls and rates; that is to say: For a foot passenger, five cents; for every horse and rider, six cents; for every cart or wagon with one horse, mule or oxen, ten cents; for every cart or wagon with two horses, or mules or oxen, twelve cents; for each cart or wagon with four horses, mules or oxen, eighteen cents; for each pleasure carriage with one horse, ten cents, with two horses, eighteen cents, with four horses, thirty-five cents; for each head of horses, mules or cattle, four cents; sheep, swine, each three cents.

Rates of toll.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the said county commissioners are hereby authorized if in their discretion the same may be deemed advisable or necessary, to erect at or near the end of said bridge, a toll house, and are directed to appoint annually, the first appointment to date from the time when the bridge shall be completed and ready for public use, some competent and reliable person to act as bridge keeper, who shall be always on the spot when his duties may require his presence to receive the rates and tolls as aforesaid, and to give free passage by raising or removing the draw, to all vessels or steamers which may approach said bridge for the purpose of passing through the same; the said keeper shall give bond to the said county commissioners, with good and sufficient security to be approved by them, in the penal sum of one thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful and efficient discharge of his duties, and safe custody of all money coming into his hands, and shall account weekly with the county commissioners for all tolls collected by him, and shall receive for his services such compensation as said county commissioners shall think just and proper, the same to be provided for and paid out of the tolls collected.

Erect toll house.

Keeper shall give bond.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the said county commissioners, before contracting for the building of said bridge, shall advertise daily for proposals for

Shall advertise for proposals.