

the Orphans' Court of Baltimore city the entire estate of Sarah Ann Fowler, valued at forty-nine hundred and nineteen dollars and eighty-eight cents, consisting of a certain amount in cash and one piece of leasehold property in Baltimore city.

AND WHEREAS the said Board of Commissioners of Public Schools of Baltimore city have since transferred to the custody of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore city all of said estate. Preamble.

AND WHEREAS the said property was derived from the estate of Frederick Cole, deceased, the father of the said Sarah Ann Fowler, who also left surviving him his wife, Mary Cole. Preamble.

AND WHEREAS Martha Rockhold, wife of Charles Rockhold, Caroline Crook, wife of William Crook, Ann E. Jennings and George Fowler Jennings are the next of kin of Mary Cole, who is now deceased, and are equitably entitled to her distributive share of said estate, which, under the laws of the State of Maryland, would amount to one-third thereof; therefore, Preamble.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore city be and they are hereby authorized, empowered and directed to pay over to Martha Rockhold, wife of Charles Rockhold, Caroline Crook, wife of William Crook, Ann E. Jennings and George Fowler Jennings, an amount equal to one-third of said estate, in the following proportions: one-third of said one-third to Martha Rockhold, one-third of said one-third to Caroline Crook, and one-third of said one-third to be equally divided between Ann E. Jennings and George Fowler Jennings. Directed to pay over.

Approved April 10, 1880.