

award, made by referees under rule of court, upon which judgment or decree execution shall issue without stay, no matter affecting the title of real estate however, shall be submitted to or arbitrated by the said committee under this or the preceding section; but the committee may direct in its awards the payment of the costs and expenses of the arbitration, and the amount thereof shall be embraced as a principal sum in the judgment or decree to be rendered, if awarded to be paid by the party against whom such judgment or decree is sought, no judgment or decree rendered on any award under this act shall be liable to be stayed, except under allegation under oath of the defendant of manifest fraud in the procurement or rendition of the award, or of a material and substantial failure of the committee, specially alleged and set forth, to comply with the by-laws of this act, in the hearing and determination of the matter submitted; nor shall any judgment or decree be quashed, modified or stricken out, except upon satisfactory proof of the matters so required to be so alleged, neither shall there be any appeal in any case from the original judgment, order or decree, whereby after a hearing of the allegations and proofs as aforesaid, the said original judgment or decree shall be maintained.

Without stay.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately from and after its passage; the General Assembly reserving to itself the right to alter, amend or repeal the same at pleasure.

Effective

Approved April 3, 1890.

CHAPTER 337.

AN ACT to authorize and empower the mayor of Frederick city to commit tramps to the Maryland house of correction.

To empower.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the mayor of Frederick city shall have the same power, authority and jurisdiction with reference to and in the case of persons arrested as tramps within the corporate limits of Frederick city, as are conferred upon justices of the peace of Frederick county, by chapter thirty-one, of the acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at the January session eighteen hundred and eighty, being sections two hundred and seventy-five, and two hundred and seventy-six, of article twenty-seven, of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, entitled "Crimes and Punishments," sub-title "Vagrants and Tramps."

Effective

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the day of its passage.

Approved April 3, 1890.