

other causes, and shall have power to temporarily increase the number of police and to temporarily appoint police from April to October, when in their judgment, the peace or safety of the town demand them; they shall arrange the police force so that a part of them shall be on duty during each day, and a part of them on duty during each night; and the said police board shall furnish the police with proper arms and a badge of office, that the police shall wear exposed on the left breast of their coat; and the said board of police commissioners shall have power and authority to make and pass such by-laws, rules and regulations governing the police appointed by them, as in their judgment shall best insure the efficiency of the force and preserve the peace of the town, and direct how the town shall be patrolled by said police, so that at least one policeman shall be in the vicinity of Cambridge harbor and bridge over the same; and the said police commissioners shall allow each policeman for the faithful performance of his duties not less than twenty-five dollars per month, and at the expiration of each month's service of a policeman the said board of police commissioners, or a majority of them, shall give to said policeman an order on the town clerk and treasurer of Cambridge for the month's pay of said policeman, which said order shall be paid in cash on presentation to said clerk and treasurer.

To increase.

Per diem.

SEC. 60. And be it enacted, That at their first meeting, or as soon thereafter as may be convenient, they shall appoint one or more bailiffs, who shall receive such compensation for their services as may be determined by the said commissioners, and said bailiffs shall be peace officers within the limits of said town, and it shall be their duty to prevent breaches of the peace, to make arrests, to go upon the premises of parties suspected of violating any provision or provisions of this act, or any ordinance or by-law of said commissioners of Cambridge, and to serve process for the enforcement of penalties, fines, &c., for violation of any provisions of this act, or any ordinance or by-law passed in pursuance thereof, as well as such other duties as are prescribed and defined by section forty-seven of this article, herein made applicable to said bailiffs as well as policemen; and it shall also be their duty to collect all taxes levied upon any dogs kept within the corporate limits, and perform such other duties as shall be prescribed by said commissioners.

Appoint bailiff

SEC. 62. And be it enacted, That every bailiff before he enters upon the duties of his office, shall take an oath before the mayor, or in his absence, some one of the commissioners, faithfully and impartially to discharge the duties of his office without favor, affection or prejudice, and shall give bond to the commissioners in the penalty of five hundred dollars, with a surety or sureties to be approved by the commissioners for the faithful collection and payment into the treasury of all fines imposed for the vio-

Oath.

Bond.