

tance of four hundred feet, more or less; thence with a westerly direction through the lands of W. C. Hanea and Samuel Ramsburg straight to the southeast corner of the lot of E. I. Saylor; thence westerly with the dividing line between the lands of I. D. Nicodemus and E. I. Saylor; thence with the dividing line, north, between the lot of E. I. Saylor and I. D. Nicodemus; thence southwest in a straight line to the southwest corner of R. A. Freshour's lot; thence in a direct line parallel to the Woodsborough and Frederick turnpike through the lands of I. D. Nicodemus and I. L. Nicodemus to a point directly opposite the southwest corner of I. D. Cramer's lot; thence with the dividing line between the lands of David Cramer and I. D. Cramer; thence with the dividing line between the lands of I. D. Cramer and David Cramer to the southwest corner of the lands of Johnson and Kemp; thence northwest in a direct line until it meets the southern boundary of I. L. Reddick's lot; thence with the dividing line between the lot of I. L. Reddick and the lands of David Cramer and the line between the lot of B. I. Jamison and the lands of David Cramer to the west side line of the track of the Frederick and Pennsylvania railroad; thence to a point in the centre of the public road two hundred feet west from the track of the Frederick and Pennsylvania railroad; thence through the lands of I. D. Cramer in the line parallel with the track of said railroad two hundred feet distant to the dividing line between the lands of I. D. Cramer and George Cramer's heirs; thence in a direct line southeast to the track of the Frederick and Pennsylvania railroad; thence with the track of said railroad to a point opposite the northeast corner of the lot of L. P. Ramsburg; thence in a direct line to the southeast corner of W. A. Cramer's lot; thence northwest to a point three hundred feet; thence due east to the east side line of the public road; thence with said east side line of the public road to the northeast corner of the lands of Nettie Atlee; thence with the dividing line between the lands of Nettie Atlee and Fulton Brothers to the public road; thence in the same direction to the boundary line of the lands of E. D. Creager; thence westerly and southwesterly with the boundary lines of the lands of E. D. Creager to the centre of the Woodsborough and Frederick turnpike; and thence in a direct line to the point of beginning.

SEC. 3. Be it enacted, That the male citizens of Walkersville, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, who have resided in said town for six months next preceding the election, shall on the first Monday of May annually, elect three freeholders, who have resided in said town for six

To elect
commissioners.