CHAPTER 671.

AN ACT to reimburse certain money paid into the State treasury by George B. Oswald, clerk of the Circuit Court for Washington County, received from Philip Funk, of said county.

WHEREAS, Philip Funk of Washington County, Maryland, did on the first day of October, A. D. 1886, take out and have issued to him by the clerk of the Circuit Court for Washington County an oyster house license for one year, from the first day of October, A. D. 1886, till the first day of October, A. D. 1887, for which license he paid to the clerk of the Circuit Court for Washington County the sum of fifty dollars, which said money was paid by the said clerk into the State treasury ; <sup>Preamble.</sup>

AND WHEREAS, by reasons of the enactment of chapter 248, acts of 1886, known as the "High License Law" for Washington County, the said Philip Funk was compelled to close business on the first day of May, A. D. 1887, and could no longer follow the business for which said license had been issued to him and for which he had paid the said fifty dollars as afore-said, thereby losing the benefit of said license for five months ; now, therefore, <sup>Preamble</sup>

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Comptroller of the Treasury be and he is hereby authorized and directed to draw his warrant upon the treasury of the State of Maryland in favor of Philip Funk of Washington County, Maryland, for the sum of nineteen dollars and seventy-nine cents, the same having been approved by the officers of the Treasury Department. <sup>Appropriation.</sup>

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. <sup>Effective.</sup>
