

six and sub-section one, of the Code of Public Local Laws of Washington county, entitled "Smithsburg," enacted by the General Assembly at the January session, eighteen hundred and seventy, chapter one hundred and seventy-six, be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted to read as follows:

Repealed and re-enacted

296. The limits of said town for all purposes shall be as follows: Beginning on "Meisner's Hill," on the public road leading from Smithsburg to Leitersburg, at a point on the west side of said road, the same being the north-east corner of the lot of ground conveyed by Samuel Meisner to Edward Clark, and the eastern terminus of the line dividing said lot of ground from the land recently purchased by said Clark from Henry W. Lyday, and running thence south seventy-three and one-half degrees, east one hundred and eighteen and one-half perches, south eighteen and one-half degrees, east twenty-one and sixty-four hundredths perches, south sixteen and three-quarters degrees, east fifty-six and twelve hundredths perches, south sixty-two degrees, west eighty-seven and sixteen hundredth perches, north seventy-two and one-half degrees, west fifty one and twenty eight hundredth perches, north thirty-eight and three quarters degrees, west thirty-three and four-tenths perches, north twenty-five degrees, west sixteen and sixty-eight hundredths perches, north two and one-half degrees, east seventy-nine and one-half perches, north forty-eight and three-quarters degrees, east eighteen and four hundredths perches to place of beginning.

Limits of town.

SUB-SEC. 1. The burgess and commissioners of said town shall have power to pass any and all ordinances necessary to open, grade, macadamize, pave, gravel or otherwise improve any street, lane or alley in said town, or open and improve any proposed street, lane or alley, and construct water ways, sewers, &c., through any portion of said corporate limits, and the said burgess and commissioners may levy an ad-valorem tax for the damages and expenses incurred in making said improvements, and the said tax shall be collected by the town collector in the same manner and by the same means as other town taxes.

Power to pass ordinances.

Burgess and Commissioners may levy.