Approved March 29, 1878.

CHAPTER 186.

AN ACT to divide Dames' Quarter District, number two, and to annex to said Dames' Quarter District, number two, a portion of Princess Anne District, number one, in Somerset county.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the boundaries of Dames' Quarter District, number two, Somerset county, shall be as follows: Commencing for the same at a point on Tangier Sound, or Monie Bay, known as Dames' Quarter Creek, and running thence in a southerly direction across the marsh, said marsh being the division between Dames' Quarter and Pigeon House to Monokin River, thence by and with the channel of said Monokin River to the mouth of Goose Creek, near the residence of Dr. William E. Waters, thence by and with the channel of said Goose Creek to the mouth of a ditch near the head of said creek, thence by and with said ditch to the county road near the residence of Thomas Heath, thence by a right line due north to the county road commonly known as the Black or Monie Road, thence by and with that road to the bridge crossing Great Monie Creek, known as the Waterloo Bridge, thence by and with said creek to Tangier Sound and the place of beginning. That portion of the said Dames' Quarter District west of the first line mentioned in this act—viz., the line running from a point on Tangier Sound or Monie Bay, as the case may be, to the Monokin River—is hereby annexed to Tangier District, number nine, and the inhabitants thereof are by this act entitled to all the rights and privileges held or to be held or enjoyed by the other districts in said county and the benefit of all local laws applicable to Tangier District.
