

Summon posse committatus. clothed with authority to arrest any and all violators of this article; and to take such violators before any judge or justice of the peace, to be dealt with as hereinafter provided; and for the purpose of making such arrests, are hereby clothed with the power to summon a posse committatus to their aid.

Arrest offenders. SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That upon information given upon oath to any justice of the peace of said counties of any violation of this act, the said justice of the peace shall issue his warrant for the arrest of the offender or offenders, and the seizure of the boat and furniture on board, which warrant shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, or any officer created by this act, or to any officer of the State fishery force.

Fine—how disposed of. SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That all money arising from fines and forfeitures imposed by this act, shall be paid to the sheriff or any constable of the county, and by him paid one-half to the informer and person making the arrest, and the other half monthly to the County Commissioners of the county; and the said County Commissioners are hereby authorized to use such money, together with the sums received for license under this act, which sums the clerk is hereby directed to pay over monthly to the said County Commissioners, after deducting therefrom his usual fees for issuing license, in providing proper police officers for the proper enforcement of the provisions of this act; and in case of a surplus remaining over at the end of each fiscal year of the county, it shall be placed to the credit of the school fund of said county.

Furnish blank certificates. SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the said County Commissioners of each county shall, before the first day of August in each year, furnish the clerk of each of their respective counties two hundred blank certificates of license, to be filled up by said clerks with the description of the boat and crew and number of the boat, and name of the person obtaining the license; and all boats licensed under this act shall have the number of said license painted on each side of the bow of such boat, in black figures, to be on a white ground of a size not less than five inches in Length of figures.