

be numbered to correspond with the number upon the license issued to it in pursuance of this authority; they may prevent the storage of gunpowder or other combustible matter in such quantities or places within the city as they may deem dangerous; pass all ordinances to provide for regulating pawnbrokers, peddlers of nostrums, notions, patents, secret or pretended inventions and remedies on the streets, lanes, alleys or sidewalks of the city, and for licensing commercial travelers and all retail dealers non-residents of the city; pass all such ordinances in addition to those already existing, levy and collect a tax on the assessable property of said city as may be necessary to pay the interest on the city bonds, and to provide a sinking fund for the redemption thereof at maturity; pass ordinances for the preservation of peace and good order, securing persons and property from violence, danger or destruction; pass ordinances for the suppression, restraint and regulation of bawdy-houses and houses of ill-fame, and to prohibit the youth of said city from being on the streets, lanes or alleys at unreasonable hours of night; pass ordinances providing for levying and collecting a tax on the assessable property of said city, for the general purposes of said corporation, not exceeding in any one year fifty cents on each one hundred dollars' worth of said assessable property; pass ordinances for the election by the City Council and qualification of a city measurer and collector, and the appointment by the Mayor of such other officers, agents or servants as may be deemed necessary, and to fix their compensation; pass ordinances to suppress the practice of firing and discharging fire-arms, fire-crackers, rockets, torpedoes and other explosives, either by prohibiting the sale thereof or otherwise; pass ordinances to restrain and prohibit gaming, and to provide for licensing, regulating or restraining theatricals or other public amusements within the limits of said city; to establish day and night police; to punish and suppress tramps and vagrants by imposing fines thereon; they shall erect lamps and provide proper and suitable lights upon the public streets; to open or close streets, or parts of streets, lanes or alleys; provided they shall not have power to close any public street or alley or parts thereof, or pledge the faith and credit of said city for any sum exceeding ten thousand dollars, without first

Provide sinking fund.

City measurer and collector.

Restrain gaming.