

PREFACE TO INDEX.

The utility of an index to a Legislative Journal is best subserved by concentrating its contents under as few heads as possible. The necessity of completing this index within a limited time has somewhat interfered with this purpose, but has not prevented its accomplishment in all essential matters. For the assistance of those searching for particular subjects in this book, the following Heads are subjoined, of the most important matters, for their guide :

UNDER THE HEAD OF

APPROPRIATIONS AND CLAIMS—All bills of that character.

ATTORNEY GENERAL—All matters pertaining to that official.
