

JOSEPH KENT, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR.

CHAPTER 221.

A further supplement to an act entitled, an act relating to Lotteries.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall be the duty of the commissioners of lotteries, to deposite all monies, notes, bills, bonds, and other securities received by them in their public character as commissioners of lotteries, in such bank as the governor and council shall annually approve, and that all payments to individuals, or to the treasurer of the western shore, shall be made by checks drawn by the said commissioners in their official character as such, and a return of such deposits and checks shall be made quarter yearly by the said commissioners to the said treasurer of the Western shore.

CHAPTER 222.

An act to continue in force the acts of assembly which would expire with the present session.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all such acts and parts of acts, as would expire with the present session of assembly, be, and the same are hereby continued to the last Monday of December next, and to the end of the then session of assembly.

CHAPTER 223

An act to make valid the acts of Justices of the Peace, relating to Supercedeas.

Whereas, many of the justices of the peace within this state, have not written out at large and signed the supercedeas in the form now required by law, but have made an entry in their dockets to the following effect: "Superseded this _____ day of _____, by A. B. and C. D." as the case may be; and doubts have been entertained whether the said supercedeas is valid in law, and to remove all such doubts—

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the entry made by any justice of the peace of this state in his docket, or on the warrant, in the following words: Superseded by A. B. and C. D. or to that effect, shall be as valid and binding upon the parties superseding the said judgments, and have the same legal operation and effect, as if the said supercedeas had been written out at length, and signed by the justice before whom the same was taken.

Doc Ses 1826

Passed March 9, 1826.

Deposits and checks regulated.

Passed March 9, 1826.

Re-enacted.

Passed March 9, 1826.

Preamble

Entries in dockets ratified.