No. 8.

Whereas, agreeably to the constitution of this state, an election for the council to the governor, was held on Tuesday the third day of January, being the first Tuesday after the first Monday in January, at which election a certain James Roberts, late of Queen Ann's county, was voted for and was declared to have been elected as a member of said council, but has since been ascertained to have died on Sunday the first day of January, and prior to said election; and whereas also at said election, a certain John N. Steele of Dorchester county, was voted for, and was one of the five persons who received the greatest number of votes, the said James Roberts not being then in existence. Therefore,
