

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

Maryland, act,

At a Session of the General Assembly of Maryland, begun and held at the City of Annapolis, on the last Monday of December, being the twenty-sixth day of the said month, in the year of our Lord, 1825, and ending on the 9th day of March, in the year 1826, his excellency Joseph Kent, esq. Governor, the following laws were enacted, to wit:—

CHAPTER 1.

An act for the relief of Jesse Myers, of Washington county.

Passed Jan
4, 1826.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That any judge of Washington county court, or any justice of the orphans court of said county, be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to grant to Jesse Myers, aforesaid, the benefit of the several acts of assembly, passed for the relief of insolvent debtors: Provided, the said Jesse Myers shall in all respects (excepting that of proving residence) comply with the requisites of said acts of Assembly, and that he satisfy the said judge or justice, that he did not come into this state with the view of obtaining the benefit of the said insolvent laws.

Insolvent.

Provide.

CHAPTER 2.

An act extending the time of taking the bond of Henry H. Johns, sheriff of Harford county.

Passed Feb
4, 1826.

WHEREAS, in consequence of an unforeseen accident, Henry H. Johns, sheriff of Harford county, has been prevented from executing his bond as sheriff of said county, within the time limited by law: Therefore,

Provided.