

CHAPTER 141.

AN ACT to incorporate the Associated Professors of Loyola College, in the city of Baltimore. Passed April 13, 1853.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Incorporated. That John Early, James A. Ward, Samuel Lilly, Anthony Mareschi, James R. Fulton, Edward T. McNerhany, and their successors, to be appointed according to the rules of said institution be, and they are hereby created a body corporate by the name and style of the Associated Professors of Loyola College, in the city of Baltimore, and that by that name they are hereby vested with the power to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, in any court of law or equity, or any other place whatsoever, and to confer any degree or degrees in any of the faculties, arts and sciences and liberal professions, which are usually permitted to be conferred in any Colleges or Universities in the United States of America, and to have and use a common seal, and the same to make, break or alter at pleasure; and that by the name aforesaid, they and their successors are hereby authorised and empowered to purchase, have and enjoy, in fee or for any lesser estate, any lands, tenements, annuities, pensions or other hereditaments, and the same to alien, sell and transfer at their pleasure, in furtherance of their said College; Provided, always that the annual income of such property, hereafter so to be acquired, shall not at any time exceed the sum of fifteen thousand dollars. Proviso.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the Associated Professors of Loyola College, in the city of Baltimore, shall have full power, from time to time, to pass such by-laws and ordinances as may be necessary to carry out the intentions of said corporation; Provided, the same shall not be contrary to the Constitution and Laws of the United States or of the State of Maryland. Power to pass by-laws. Proviso.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the Legislature reserves the right to alter, amend or repeal this act or any part thereof at pleasure. Reservation.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. In force.