

CHAPTER 143.

AN ACT to authorise the Trustees of Primary School number two, in the Upper Election District of Caroline county, to apply the surplus money towards the building of a new School House. Passed April 15, 1853.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the trustees of primary school number two, in the upper election district of Caroline county, be, and they are hereby authorised, in their discretion, to use any part or all of the surplus money they may have on hand, for the purpose of building a new school house in said district. Authority to use surplus money.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from its passage. In force.

CHAPTER 144.

AN ACT for the relief of Anna J. Walker, Samuel Doman and William Anderson. Passed April 16, 1853.

WHEREAS, Anna J. Walker, Samuel Doman and William Anderson, by their petition set forth that they are grievously injured by the assessment of damages made by certain commissioners appointed by the Kent county circuit court, and that in consequence of the minority of one, and the want of information with the others, they were not heard before the said court; Therefore for remedy thereof, Preamble.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it may and shall be lawful for the judge of the circuit court for Kent county, to open the judgment heretofore, rendered in that court at April term, eighteen hundred and fifty-two, on the petition of sundry citizens for the opening of a road from near Chestertown to Millington, usually called the Morgan's creek road, and to hear and decide upon the respective claims of the above named petitioners, as fully in all respects as he could or might have done at or before the said April term, and the judgment to be given thereupon, shall in all respects, have the same legal force and effect as if rendered at said term. Judge to open judgment.