

Metes and bounds.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the metes and bounds of the said town of Hillsborough, shall extend from the foot of Tuckahoe bridge along the meanderings of the creek until it intersects with Tillotson, "the late Keen property lines," thence with the lines of said property until it intersects with Tillotson's farm fence, thence east with said fence until it intersects with the first line of the property belonging to the heirs of the late John See, thence north one hundred and eighty feet, or the depth of said line north, thence east on a straight line until it extends to the east corner of the lot of land belonging to the heirs of the late Thomas J. Gadd, thence south until it intersects again with Tillotson's farm fence, thence east up to the corner of said line, thence south until it intersects with the back line of the Kennedy lot, thence in a south-westerly direction and with the southern boundaries of all the lots to the neck road, thence southward with said road to the corner of Doctor John H. Holt's first field fence, thence westwardly on a direct line with the southern boundaries of all the lots to the creek, and thence with the meanderings of Tuckahoe creek to the foot of the aforementioned bridge, and all the property within said limits shall be subject to such taxes and charges as may be deemed necessary by said commissioners or a majority of them, to support and maintain the expenses which may be at any time incurred in the improvement of said town; Provided, said tax shall not exceed the sum of fifteen cents in the hundred dollars, for any one year, and the said commissioners or a majority of them, shall have full power to appoint an assessor, who shall enter upon his duties as soon as practicable after having taken an oath that he will value the property of said town correctly and impartially, and make a proper and timely return of such valuation to the said board of commissioners.

Proviso.

Right of appeal.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That if any of the owners of property within said town, shall conceive themselves aggrieved by the assessment as aforesaid, made by said assessors, they may appeal to the board of commissioners for a final adjustment of the same.

Commissioner to be a resident of said town.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That no person shall be elected to the office of commissioners in said town, for the time being, who shall not have resided twelve months in said town immediately previous to said election, and at the time conducting some business, or having a family in said town.