CHAPTER 76.

(House Bill 44)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 241A of Article 9 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Charles County," sub-title "Schools," as said section was enacted by Chapter 918 of the Acts of 1947, to eliminate the provision which prohibits the Board of Education of Charles County from changing the routes of school buses in order to transport children to and from schools not receiving State aid.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 241A of Article 9 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Charles County," sub-title "Schools," as said section was enacted by Chapter 918 of the Acts of 1947, be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

241A. All children who attend parochial schools in Charles County, which schools do not receive State aid, and who reside on or along or near to the public highways of Charles County, on which there is now or hereafter operated a public school bus or conveyance provided by the Board of Education of Charles County for transporting children to and from the public schools of Charles County, shall be entitled to transportation on the said buses or conveyances, subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth, from a point on the said public highways nearest or most accessible to their respective homes to a point on said public highways nearest or most accessible to their respective schools. Such transportation may be provided by the Board of Education, as aforesaid, for all the children attending schools described herein, upon the same terms and conditions as now or as may be hereafter established by the Board of Education of Charles County for children attending public schools.
