

earnestly solicit your support in the election on November 3rd, not only for myself, but for my running mates, Comptroller Tawes and Attorney General Walsh; for our Democratic Congressional candidates who are pledged to support the war effort in Washington, and for all the local candidates.

The issue is: Who can best serve the State of Maryland during these four years? On the record I maintain that the Democratic Party can best serve your interests and, therefore, deserves your support!