

and appointed by them ten days prior thereto, who shall appoint one clerk, all of whom shall receive such compensation as the Mayor and Common Council shall determine; and at said election the polls shall be kept open from two o'clock P. M., to 7 o'clock P. M. when they shall be closed, and the ballots publicly counted, and the said judges shall, within two days after the election, make a true and correct return of the same under their hands, to be addressed and transmitted to the Mayor, who shall convene the Common Council on the second Monday of May after each election to receive the returns of the same.

384A. The Mayor and Common Council shall provide by ordinance for the registration of the legally qualified voters of said town, a list of which shall be furnished the election officers from which to determine the qualifications of any persons applying to vote. And the Mayor and Common Council may also provide by ordinance for the method of nominating candidates for office in said town.

384B. The Mayor and Common Council may also provide by ordinance for the regulation of building and for the regulation of the streets in said town by requiring permits for the erection of buildings, encroachments or approaches to the streets or highways in said town.

384C. The Mayor shall preside over the meetings of the Common Council but shall vote therein only upon occasion of a tie vote among the members of the Council. The members of the Common Council shall elect one of their number to be President of the Common Council, who shall preside over the meetings of the Common Council in the absence of the Mayor. All ordinances or resolutions after they have been passed by the Common Council shall be submitted to the Mayor, who, if he approves them shall sign them. If he disapproves any ordinance or resolution he shall return the same to the Council stating the grounds for his disapproval. If, upon reconsideration such ordinance or resolution be passed by an affirmative vote of 4 out of 6 Councilmen, such ordinance or resolution shall become effective notwithstanding the disapproval of the Mayor.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1947.

Approved April 16, 1947.
