

the child of the petitioner or petitioners; unless and until such interlocutory order of adoption is revoked the person adopted shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges and subject to all the obligations of a child born in lawful wedlock to the petitioner or petitioners.

(b) The natural parents of the person adopted, if living, shall after the interlocutory decree be relieved of all legal duties and obligations due from them to the person adopted, and shall be divested of all rights with respect to such person; provided, that nothing in this sub-title shall be construed to prevent the person adopted from inheriting from his natural parents and relatives under the laws of this or any other State.

(c) The term "child" or its equivalent in a deed, grant, will or other written instrument shall be held to include any adopted person, unless the contrary plainly appears by the terms thereof, whether such instrument was executed before or after the entry of the interlocutory decree of adoption, if any, and if none, before or after the entry of the final decree of adoption.

85L. (Final Decree.) Before the end of the trial period, the Court may request a supplemental written report from the agency making the original report showing the result of such trial period and making a recommendation to the Court in regard to the advisability of the passage of a final decree, declaring the adoption prayed for in the petition. If the Court be satisfied from the original report, the supplemental report, or from testimony taken, or otherwise, that the best interests and welfare of the child will be promoted by the passage of a final decree declaring the adoption of the person to be adopted, the Court shall, thereupon, pass such final decree of adoption.

No attempt to invalidate a final decree of adoption by reason of any jurisdictional or procedural defect shall be received by the Court, or by any Court of this State, unless regularly filed with such Court within one year following the entry of the final decree.

85M. (Legal Effects of Final Decree.) Upon entry of a final decree of adoption, the legal effects of an interlocutory order shall be confirmed and continued.

The status of adoptive relationship created by a valid final decree of adoption in another jurisdiction shall be given full faith and credit by the courts of this State. When the question is properly presented to a Court in this State and
