

97. (Further Restrictions in Non-Tidal Waters.) It shall be lawful to fish with rod and line, not to exceed two in number and not more than two hooks to each line, provided artificial lures or plugs with multiple or gang hooks are considered one unit.

It shall be lawful to use a slat basket commonly known as the Chesapeake Bay Eel Pot for the purpose of catching eels.

It shall be lawful during the open season for any resident of this State who has secured a resident angler's license to fish by the use of a dip net in the waters of the Susquehanna River in Cecil and Harford Counties and in the waters of Allegany, Washington, and Frederick Counties; provided, however, it shall be unlawful for any person to use a dip net in any of the waters of this State which have been stocked with trout.

It shall be lawful in the waters of the Potomac and Monocacy rivers, within Montgomery, Carroll, Washington, and Frederick Counties for any resident of this State who has secured a resident angler's license to use bush-bobs or bank-poles (not exceeding a total of twenty-five (25) in all and not exceeding one (1) hook to a pole or bob). It shall be unlawful to use bush-bobs or bank-poles on any stream stocked with trout.

It shall be unlawful to use any bush-bob or bank-pole which has been baited with scale bait or live bait to catch suckers, catfish, carp, eels, gudgeons, and all species of sunfish, including bluegills, rock bass, commonly known as red-eye.

No person shall use a bush-bob or bank-pole except between the hours of sunset and sunrise.

98. (Creel and Possession Limits.) It shall be unlawful for any person to take, catch, kill, attempt to kill, or have in possession more than 10 of large or small mouth bass; brown, brook, or rainbow trout; shad, including hickory shad (herring); Susquehanna salmon (wall-eyed pike or pickerel), or striped bass (rock) in any one day; or more than 15 suckers or perch (white or yellow) in one day.

Any of the above species of fish caught and returned alive to the waters shall not be considered for the purpose of this section as having been either taken, caught, or had in possession.

It shall be unlawful to take, catch, or kill any species of fish from any stream or non-tidal waters which have been stocked with trout except during the legal open season for the taking of trout. Regardless of the manner in which Catoctin Creek in Frederick County is stocked with
