

County, (Flack's Edition, 1943), titled "Dogs", to be known as Sections 493A, 493B, and 493C, and to follow immediately after Section 493 of the said Code, to read as follows:

493A. That, in addition to the powers of the County Commissioners provided under this title, the County Commissioners are hereby authorized and directed to pay to the collectors of dog tax for their services a fee equal to fifty per cent (50%) of the dog tax collections actually made to said collectors.

493B. That, in addition to the powers of the County Commissioners provided under this title, the County Commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to purchase equipment and employ personnel to establish a system for the collection of stray dogs and dogs not having tags as required by law.

493C. That, in addition to the powers of the County Commissioners provided under this title, the County Commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to establish a dog pound whereby stray dogs and dogs not having tags as required by law which have been collected under the provisions of this title may be detained until lawfully returned to their owners upon payment of licenses and costs, with authority to the County Commissioners to make regulations for the collection, detention, and release of stray dogs upon proper payment of charges, and their disposition in the event of non-payment.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1947.

Approved March 29, 1947.

CHAPTER 246.

(House Bill 294)

AN ACT to add a new section to Article 23 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Wicomico County", sub-title "Salisbury", said new section to be known as Section 293B, and to follow immediately after Section 293A, authorizing the City of Salisbury to regulate and license public parking lots within the corporate limits of the City of Salisbury.
