

any regular or special meeting of said Mayor and City Council.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the bonds hereby authorized to be issued and the interest paid thereon, in the hands of the persons entitled thereto, from time to time, shall be and remain exempt from all State, county and municipal taxation of any kind and nature whatsoever in the State of Maryland.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That in order to provide for the payment of the principal and interest of said bonds as and when the same respectively mature and are payable, the City may, in each fiscal year that any of said bonds are outstanding, allocate from the proceeds of the collection of water rents sufficient funds to meet said principal and interest maturities occurring in each such fiscal year, but in the event the proceeds of said water rents are not so allocated or in the event such allocation is insufficient for said purposes, the City shall, beginning in each such fiscal year, provide the funds necessary to meet the principal and interest maturities occurring in such year by a levy upon all property subject to assessment for taxation within the corporate limits of the City of ad valorem taxes sufficient in rate and amount to provide in said fiscal year the moneys necessary for said purposes. Said taxes shall be levied without regard to any limitation on the powers of taxation of the City and shall have the same priority and lien and shall be levied and collected in the same manner as other City taxes are levied and collected, and the payment thereof shall be enforced in the same manner as payment of other City taxes is enforced.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1947.

Approved April 16, 1947.
