22. It shall be unlawful to export or ship out from the limits of the State of Maryland any game (water fowl and fur-bearing animals excepted); or to export or ship any game out from the limits of one County to another or to any City of this State, except a licensed hunter, either resident or non-resident, may take out with him as personal baggage in the open two days' bag limit as provided by law. It shall be unlawful for any person to have more than two days' bag limit of any species in possession during any one week; and it shall be unlawful for any express company or any common carrier, to knowingly accept any such game (water fowl and fur-bearing animals excepted), for shipment without any county, city or town of the State. Any person desiring to ship out of this State any water fowl shall ship same out in the open tied by head or feet and tagged accordingly, or in a container slatted so the birds are visible.

(a) A licensed hunter who has procured a hunter's license in Maryland for year in which he desires to take out, and who has hunted in State and killed game, may take out as personal baggage in the open two days' bag limit as provided by law, but he must produce his hunting license as herein provided upon request of any person.

(b) Any person desiring to ship or take out of State any waterfowl killed by them, shall not ship or take out more than two days' bag limit in any one calendar week.

(c) Any person convicted before any Justice of the Peace of this State for violating any of the provisions of this Act shall be fined not less than Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) nor more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) and costs for each and every offense, unless a different penalty is provided in Act, and in addition to said fine shall be fined Five Dollars ($5.00) for each and every game bird and game animal, caught or killed illegally, purchased, or offered to purchase, sold, offered for sale, barter or exchange, or taken or killed in excess of the bag limit, or found in possession.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That all Acts or parts of Acts, both general laws or local laws, inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1937.

Approved May 18, 1937.
