

in Section 19 (j)), in any week shall be paid with respect to such week a partial benefit. Such partial benefit shall be an amount equal to the difference between his weekly benefit amount (as defined in Section 19 (q)) and five-sixths of his remuneration (as defined in Section 19 (n)) for such week. If such partial benefit for any week equals less than $2.00, it shall not be payable unless and until the accumulated total of such partial benefits with respect to weeks occurring within the thirteen preceding weeks equals $2.00 or more.

(d) DETERMINATION OF FULL-TIME WEEKLY WAGE.

(1) The full-time weekly wage of any individual means the weekly wages that such individual would receive if he were employed at the most recent wage rate earned by him for employment by an employer during the period prescribed pursuant to paragraph (3) of this sub-section, and for the customary scheduled full-time weekly hours prevailing for his occupation in the enterprise in which he last earned wages for employment by an employer during the same period.

(2) If the Board finds that the full-time weekly wage, as above defined, would be unreasonable or arbitrary or not readily determinable with respect to any individual the full-time weekly wage of such individual shall be deemed to be one-thirteenth of his total wages for employment by employers during that quarter in which such total wages were highest during the period provided pursuant to paragraph (3) of this sub-section.

(3) The full-time weekly wage of any individual shall be determined and redetermined at such reasonable times as the Board may find necessary to administer this Act and may by regulation prescribe. The period hereinabove referred to shall consist of the next to the last completed calendar quarter immediately preceding the date with respect to which an individual's full-time weekly wage is determined, and such of the seven immediately preceding consecutive calendar quarters as the Board may by regulation prescribe.

(e) DURATION OF BENEFITS. The Board shall compute wage credits for each individual by crediting him with the wages earned by him for employment after December 31, 1936, by employers during each quarter, or $390.00, whichever is the lesser. Benefits paid to any eligible individual shall be charged, in the same chronological order as such wages were earned, against one-sixth of his wage credits which are based upon wages earned during his base period and which have not been previously charged hereunder. The maximum total amount of benefits payable to any eligible individual during any benefit year shall not exceed
