

“Maryland-Washington Metropolitan District” said new Sections to be known as Sections 736A and 736B to follow immediately after Section 736, and to read as follows:

736A. For the purpose of removing confusion due to a duplication of street names and in order to secure a uniformity of street names and numbering of houses, the said Maryland-National Capital Park and Planning Commission is hereby authorized and empowered to name and rename any street or highway and to number and re-number the houses within the boundaries of the Maryland-Washington Metropolitan District lying within Prince George's County. The said Commission shall have the power to correct mistakes and to change existing names of streets and highways, to re-name said streets and highways from time to time and to place or to have placed proper signs showing or indicating the names of streets and highways, and shall also have the power to change existing numbers of houses and to change said numbers from time to time, provided each new number or change of number is reported to the owner or occupant of the building, and to place or have placed the new numbers on the building or premises. The said Commission shall also have the power to make reasonable rules and regulations for carrying out any of the changes in street or highway names or numbers of houses, and any violation of said rules and regulations shall be deemed a misdemeanor and shall be punishable before a Justice of the Peace, and every act or omission designated as a misdemeanor in this Act unless otherwise provided, shall be punishable before a Justice of the Peace or the Circuit Court of Prince George's County and the offender shall, upon conviction, be subject to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100.00) or thirty (30) days in the County Jail, or both, in the discretion of the Court, where such an act or omission is of a continuing nature, or is persisted in, in violation of the provisions of this act or of any rule or regulation formulated thereunder, a conviction for any offense shall not be a bar to a conviction for a continuation of such offense subsequent to the first or any succeeding conviction.

736B. For the purpose of paying the costs and expenses in carrying out the provisions of this Act the Maryland National Capital Park and Planning Commission is hereby authorized and directed to appropriate and expend any surplus, or so much thereof as may be necessary, from fees for building permits issued in Prince George's County now on hand which may hereafter be collected prior to June 1, 1939.
