

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That two new sections be and they are hereby added to Article 12 of the Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Garrett County", sub-title "Sunday Observance", said new sections to be known as Sections 507A and 507B, to follow immediately after Section 507 of said Article, and to read as follows:

507A. Notwithstanding any provision of any Public General or Public Local Law, it shall be lawful to show or exhibit motion pictures in the Town of Oakland in Garrett County on Sundays between the hours of 2:30 o'clock P. M. and 6 o'clock P. M. and after the hour of 9 o'clock P. M., and at no other time during such day, with or without a charge or admission fee, provided, however, that such exhibitions shall be subject to all provisions of law relating to licensing and censorship applicable to motion picture exhibitions on week days. The work or employment of any operator, ticket-seller or other employee or attendant in connection with such exhibition shall not be unlawful because performed on Sunday.

Any such exhibition on Sunday except as hereby authorized shall be subject to the provisions and penalties of Sections 483 and 485 of Article 27 of the Code of Public General Laws.

507B. Upon every person, firm or corporation exhibiting motion pictures pursuant to the preceding section for a direct or indirect admission fee or charge, there is hereby levied and imposed a tax at the rate of five (5c) cents for each person admitted to any such exhibition. Said tax shall be paid by said exhibitor not later than the Wednesday following such exhibition, to the City Clerk of Oakland, who shall pay all such taxes into a special account which shall be divided and disbursed as follows: Twenty-five per cent (25%) to the support and maintenance of the Oakland Free Public Library; twenty-five per cent (25%) to the support and maintenance of the Oakland Volunteer Fire Department and fifty per cent (50%) to the Garrett County representative or agent of the Maryland Children's Aid Society to be used for the aid of indigent children in Garrett County.

Any person, firm or corporation failing to pay said tax as aforesaid shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction therefor shall be subject to a fine of not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.) or imprisonment for not more than sixty (60) days, or both, in the discretion of the Court.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That all laws or parts of laws, whether Public General or Public Local Laws, inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, and especially Sections
