

Maryland (1935 Supplement), title "Department of Law", be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments to read as follows:

4. The Attorney General shall receive a salary of five thousand dollars ($5,000) per annum during the term of the present incumbent at the time of the passage of this Act, but beginning with the term of the next Attorney General on December 20th, 1938, and thereafter he shall receive a salary of eight thousand dollars ($8,000). He is authorized to appoint five assistants, one of whom he shall designate and be known as Deputy Attorney General, one of whom shall be known as Special Assistant Attorney for the State Roads Commission, two of whom shall be known as Assistant Attorney General, and the other of whom shall be known as Special Attorney for the State Accident Fund. The Deputy Attorney General, the Special Assistant Attorney General and the Special Attorney for the State Accident Fund shall be practicing lawyers of the State of Maryland in good standing, each of whom shall hold his respective office during the pleasure of the Attorney General. The Deputy Attorney General shall receive an annual salary of six thousand dollars ($6,000); the Special Assistant Attorney General for the State Roads Commission shall receive an annual salary of five thousand dollars ($5,000) and the Assistant Attorneys General shall each receive an annual salary of fifty-five hundred dollars ($5,500); and the Special Attorney for the State Accident Fund shall receive an annual salary of four thousand dollars ($4,000). The increased salaries for the Deputy Attorney General and the Assistants, as provided for in the Budget shall be payable on and after October 1, 1937. All of the salaries above provided shall be payable monthly. The salary of the Special Assistant Attorney General for the State Roads Commission shall be paid by the State Roads Commission and the salary of the Special Attorney for the State Accident Fund shall be paid by the State Accident Fund, as provided by the Budget Bill. The Deputy Attorney General and the Assistant Attorneys General shall each perform such duties as the Attorney General is hereby authorized to assign to them and each of them the performance, subject to his direction and control, of any of the duties required of him by law. The Special Assistant Attorney General for the State Roads Commission and the Special Attorney for the State Accident Fund shall perform such duties for the State Roads Commission and the State Accident Fund, respectively, as the Attorney General may assign to them, and each shall be required to perform such duties subject at all times to the direction and control of the Attorney General.