

611-B. The House of Reformation, a body politic and corporate of the State of Maryland, in consideration of the State of Maryland assuming its obligations to the colored male minors under its care and custody, is hereby authorized and empowered to transfer its property real, personal and mixed, reserving, however, out of the cash on hand and accounts receivable as of October 1st, 1937, the sum of $30,000.00; and the Board of Public Works of the State of Maryland for the consideration aforesaid, is authorized, empowered and directed to receive a good and sufficient deed transferring to the State of Maryland, as of October 1st, 1937, its said real and personal property located at Cheltenham, Maryland, which shall thenceforth be known as Cheltenham School for Boys.

The sum of $30,000.00 hereinabove referred to shall be held by the House of Reformation, a body politic and corporate, and invested or reinvested from time to time, only in bonds of the State of Maryland or of its Cities or Counties; said fund to be under the control and management of the Board of Managers of said House of Reformation, and to be disbursed by said Board from time to time, in its discretion, both interest and principal, for the uses and purposes of the Cheltenham School for Boys, or for the benefit of the past and present employees of said House of Reformation, or both. Any unexpended balance of said fund, not used for the purposes aforesaid within ten years from October 1st, 1937, shall be paid over by said Board to the Treasury of the State of Maryland, and thereupon said Board shall take steps to effect the dissolution of said body corporate.

611-C. The Board of Managers of Cheltenham School for Boys shall consist of the Governor ex-officio for the time being, and fifteen members as follows:

Willard W. Allen, Joseph C. Briscoe, Frederick Douglass, George McDonald and John O. Spencer, who shall serve for a period ending June 1st, 1938, or until their successors are duly appointed as hereinafter set forth; Enoch Harlan, Howard C. Hill, John E. McCormack, Blossie R. Miller and James E. Steuart, who shall serve for a period ending June 1st, 1939, or until their successors are duly appointed as hereinafter set forth; Joseph H. Blandford, Hal B. Clagett, J. Amos Davis, William H. Gibbons and M. Hampton Magruder, who shall serve for a period ending June 1st, 1940, or until their successors are duly appointed as hereinafter set forth. At the expiration of their respective terms, the Governor shall appoint successors (and in his discretion the same persons may be appointed to succeed themselves) for the term of three years, and it shall be the duty of the Governor to fill vacancies for the balance of the respective terms, caused by death, resigna-
