So the report was adopted.

Pending the call of the roll,

Mr. Baldwin submitted the following reasons for not voting.

In so far as relates to Edward J. Chaisty, who was the nominee, not only of the Democratic party, but also of Reform organization, I desire to have it recorded upon the journal, that I consider him entitled to his seat in this body; but in regard to the other five gentlemen from the Third Legislative District of Baltimore city, I desire it to be entered upon the journal that had it been possible to have divided my vote on the report in regard to said Third Legislative District, I should have voted against the said report as far as it relates to the five gentlemen aforesaid.

Mr. Whitlock declined to vote for the reasons heretofore given.

Mr. Given declined to vote for reasons as heretofore given.

Mr. Dodson declined to vote for reasons heretofore given.

Mr. Rutledge declined to vote for same reasons as before.

Mr. Donaldson declined to vote for reasons as before given.
