

bill, Registration bill and School bill should be carefully considered and promptly passed; and

Whereas, The close of the Session is rapidly approaching, and the perfecting of the necessary general legislation is in danger of perishing unless some means are adopted to avoid such results; and

Whereas, a large portion of the Session has already been devoted to the consideration of local legislation,

Ordered, That the general legislation be taken up in the following order:

First—Revenue and Tax bill; Second—Assessment bill; Third—Registration bill; Fourth—School bill, Fifth—Produce Market bill; promptly, at 12 o'clock, during each morning session, and at 8 o'clock, P. M., during the evening sessions of the House, except Friday, and be considered continuously until passed to the exclusion of all other business; and during the Friday evening sessions, only local bills shall be considered, commencing with the oldest county. Each county and legislative district to be entitled to have one bill considered. The order to take effect on Monday next, March 20th, 1876, until otherwise ordered.

Mr. Vandiver moved to lay the order on the table, upon which

Mr. Hoblitzell demanded the yeas and nays:

The call being sustained, the yeas and nays appeared as follows:
